

The Elms
Chapel Allerton
N^e Leeds. Sept 13/67

My dear friend

Since hearing from ²⁵²you August 5th, I have seen our mutual friend Mr Nichols of Bradford, who tells me, he & others have arranged for your presence & speaking in Bradford on Friday October 11th & again to be there on the 15th at a Temperance Meeting or Conference. Now as this is the case, it will just

Send our Leeds friends & your friends the Writer, to see you in Leeds on the Saturday the 12th of October & stay with me until the Tuesday Morning the 15th & on the evening of the 14th attend a public Meeting in one of our large Halls, called by our Freedmen's Committee Anti-Slavi-
-slavery friends; we have already invited
an M. P., (Mr Baines) to preside on the occasion & have no doubt he will do so. Mr W. L. Forster is unable to be with us, as he will then be on the continent on a visit to Turkey - I hope these arrangements will quite meet your views, &

shall endeavor to meet you in Bradford on the Saturday Morning
the 12th of October & escort you home, I speak of that evening, have a quiet social tea gathering with a few old friends, & on Sunday a quiet rest with me in this quiet place, a little out of Leeds.
I find your friends have arranged for your being in Birmingham on the 16th & 17th Oct October, & this will follow Bradford nicely unless you like a day at Sheffield say the 16th & my friend Mr Barber writes me he will be delighted to see you though your old lady friend is yet alive but lives some distance out of Sheffield.

Hoping you feel all the stronger for your journey & are enjoying the lovely country you are visiting Believe me ever yours
very faithfully
W L Garrison & Joseph Lupton
